Code of Conduct

Behaviour 2025 conference is committed to create a safe, inclusive, and welcoming environment for open discussions and scientific exchange. It is a space where all attendees, regardless of gender, ethnicity, race, colour, religion, sexuality, age, abilities, or beliefs, can feel comfortable and respected. All Behaviour 2025 Organizing committee, members, and volunteers are expected to uphold scientific integrity and professional ethical standards and comply with the community's agreed standards of behaviour. We ask everyone attending the conference to help us to create and maintain a safe and inclusive space for all attendees by agreeing to these principles:

- Treat everyone with respect, courtesy, and professionalism, fostering open and constructive interactions.
- Foster an inclusive and non-discriminatory environment for all participants, organizers, and volunteers.
- Maintain integrity and uphold ethical standards, especially when discussing sensitive or controversial topics.
- Be mindful of others' comfort, recognizing that acceptable behavior may vary, and avoid any form of harassment, including inappropriate jokes or comments.
- Report any unsafe situations or instances of distress to designated staff, security, or organizers.
- Prioritize your well-being, taking breaks as needed and seeking support when necessary.
- Address or report inappropriate behavior to help maintain a safe and respectful environment
- Avoid posting personal or informal photos where other people are visible before taking their permission. We will have official Behaviour 2025 photographs that can be shared, but it is crucial that we respect the right of individuals to not have unofficial footage taken or shared on social media.
- During sessions we encourage open, respectful discussion of content on social media (e.g. X aka Twitter, Facebook, TikTok, Instagram, Google+, etc.) and blogging platforms. Please use the following hashtag: #behaviour2025
- While the default policy during the plenary sessions is to allow open discussion of presentations on social media and blogging platforms, please respect any request from speakers to not share the contents of their presentation online. Speakers who do not wish to have their research shared on Twitter, Facebook, or other social networks should make an announcement before and during her/his presentation.

Behaviour 2025 Organizing Committee has a zero-tolerance policy for harassment in any form, including physical, verbal, or social misconduct. Sexual harassment, discrimination based on gender, ethnicity, sexuality, beliefs, or any behavior that endangers the safety and well-being of others is strictly prohibited.

We reserve the right to restrict participation for those who violate these rules and will involve authorities in cases of illegal activity. In case you want to report any violation, you can send a confidential email to behaviour2025@gmail.com.
